

Yerevan, Armenia: Tech Events Armenia announces its next conference in Yerevan, Armenia. JS Conf Armenia 2019 is going to take place at Marriott Armenia on November 30, 2019. It will bring together 1000 international and local JavaScript professionals and IT companies from Armenia and other countries.

JS Conf Armenia 2019 will include not only lectures and talks, but also many workshops and competitions. The conference is a good opportunity for the participants to obtain new knowledge and broaden their network. As the conference partners with a number of big IT companies, many IT professionals will have a chance to meet company representatives, learn about their career opportunities. The entrance is free but invite-only.
